

Stanley Hotel

The Stanley Hotel, known for its architecture, magnificent setting and famous visitors, may possibly be best known today for its inspirational role in Stephen King's novel "The Shining". The hotel has been featured as one of America's most haunted hotels and with the numerous stories from visitors and staff, the Stanley Hotel continues to "shine" today, as it did in 1909 when first opened.

Famous for its old world charm, the Stanley Hotel boasts spectacular views in every direction and is less than six miles away from the Rocky Mountain National Park. This is the site for the 2010 Rocky Mountain Summit. This seminar will be set in the beautiful mountains of Colorado. You don't want to miss this opportunity.

The Stanley Hotel fills up quickly during this time of year, so if you'd like to stay at this historical hotel, you must register early. The normal room rate is $220 per night. For this special summit event the room rates are only $169 per night. Rooms must be booked by May 10, 2010.

Call the Stanley Hotel at, 1-800-976-1377, and reserve your room under the Rocky Mountain Summit to get this great room rate. Reservations must be made by May 12, 2010.

Go to www.stanleyhotel.com to get more information about the Stanley Hotel. For other hotel options in Estes Park, go to www.estesparkcvb.com.

Get your hotel reservations in early if you want to stay in Estes Park. Note: This is the peak tourist season for Estes Park, some deals can be found if you shop early enough.
